Presentation content

The presented slides are in Appendix B

Discussions

There were very fruitful and constructive discussions and the proposals given in the slides were approved with some notable comments beyond the content of the presentation slides:

- Welch Scholarship
 - o The available funds should be used as flexible as possible to attract a broad variety of high quality applicants

- Guidelines should be specified for the event of selection committee members being involved in an application, e.g. as host institution
- All IUVSTA awards
 - Attracting healthy numbers of high quality applicants is crucial
 - The new website can play an important role in improved advertising of the awards (pre and post award)
